

Fixed Rates for Color Figures Printed in Journals of the American Institute of Physics

Authors wishing to have color figures printed in journals published by the American Institute of Physics will be charged fixed rates of $650 for the first color figure and $325 for each additional color figure. For multipart figures, a single charge will apply only if all parts are submitted as a single piece of artwork.

Example: The author has chosen to publish three total pieces in color. AIP will invoice the author for $1,300 [$$650+(2\times$325)$].

Authors will be required to sign an acknowledgment of color charges prior to publication of an article where color charges apply, and, when ordering reprints with color, authors will be charged an additional $40 per color page per 100 reprints ordered (with a minimum reprint surcharge of $40).

Color printing for archival journals creates additional printing expense. These fixed rates are set to recover the actual additional costs involved in producing color figures in the printed journal. Authors should note that late revisions to color artwork already processed by AIP may result in additional charges.

Upon receipt, at the AIP Publishing Center, of an accepted manuscript containing color illustrations, AIP Production Staff will contact the author to obtain instructions about which illustrations to process in color, to obtain the author's agreement on associated color charges, and to determine if the author will be ordering reprints. Upon receiving this information from the author, AIP Production Staff will arrange for processing of the color illustrations and will send color proofs to the author for approval prior to publication.

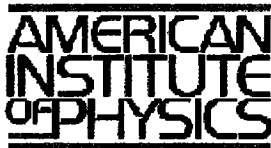

If you have questions or need additional information, please contact the appropriate AIP Production Services staff member. In your message, please identify the name of the journal in which you will be publishing and the manuscript code number.
