

AUTHORS, PLEASE NOTE ...

Your proofs will be available via the World Wide Web.

After your accepted paper has been composed by production staff at the American Institute of Physics (AIP), you will receive an e-mail message informing you of the location of your proofs on AIP's Web server and providing you with a Personal Identification Number (PIN) to access AIP's Online Proof Service.

Your proofs will be posted in a secure, non-public portion of AIP's Web server in Adobe's Portable Document Format (PDF). You will need Adobe's Acrobat Reader installed on your system in order to read or print your page proofs. When your proofs are available for your review, AIP Production will send you an e-mail message with instructions.

Please watch for this e-mail message. The sender will be

[3-letter journal code]@aip.org.

The subject line of the message will read:

This is your only AUTHOR PROOF for [3-letter journal code].

For additional information about AIP's Online Proof Service, please contact the Production Editor in charge of the Journal. Contact information for the appropriate Production staff members is shown below.

Thank you for your interest in journals published by the American Institute of Physics.
